

Join us for a lavish summer benefit amongst an unbelievable collection of African art, great food & remarkable company

Hosted in a 16,000 square foot cliff side mansion in La Jolla, your evening of decadence will be complete with a paella dinner, wine, refreshments, and an exclusive guided tour of one of the finest private African art collections in the country. Guests are welcome to partake in a sunset tour of the gardens.

Valet included. Suggested dress: cocktail attire.

When: Saturday June 4th

Time: 6pm-9pm

Location: 9776 La Jolla Farms Rd, La Jolla, CA 92037

Suggested minimum donation: $100 per person (tax deductible)

To secure your name on the list: visit www.gonnagotoghana.com

All proceeds for this evening will benefit the Gonna Go to Ghana fund.

This summer, six high school students from San Diego will be traveling to Northern Ghana (West Africa) to engage in the following philanthropic activities:

- Establish a computer center near the village of Tongo, Ghana.
- Build furniture for an elementary school.
- Create a documentary about Kayayoo, a child labor issue in Ghana
- Each student traveler will also be participating in a project of their own, catered to their strengths and interests, including tutoring, painting murals in schools as well as clinics in running, volleyball and yoga.

EQUAL FOOTING
FOUNDATION

changing our future
one child at a time

Questions: call (951) 453-4773 email - tamaraorras@gmail.com